

I strongly urge the FCC not to bow to the pressure being applied by telemarketing firms. DO NOT weaken the current tough laws in NJ protecting us from persistent and annoying sales calls. Collectively, we've taken a stand, and consumers are pleased. Let's not back off just because the "special interests" are up in arms.